LAMBKIN BOOK OF TRAVELS

Dedication

TO THE FUTURE of the class of 1934 this Lambkin is dedicated. With their eyes on the glorious dawn of a new day these seniors are setting forth on their journey thru life. May success, happiness, good fortune, and prosperity be theirs!

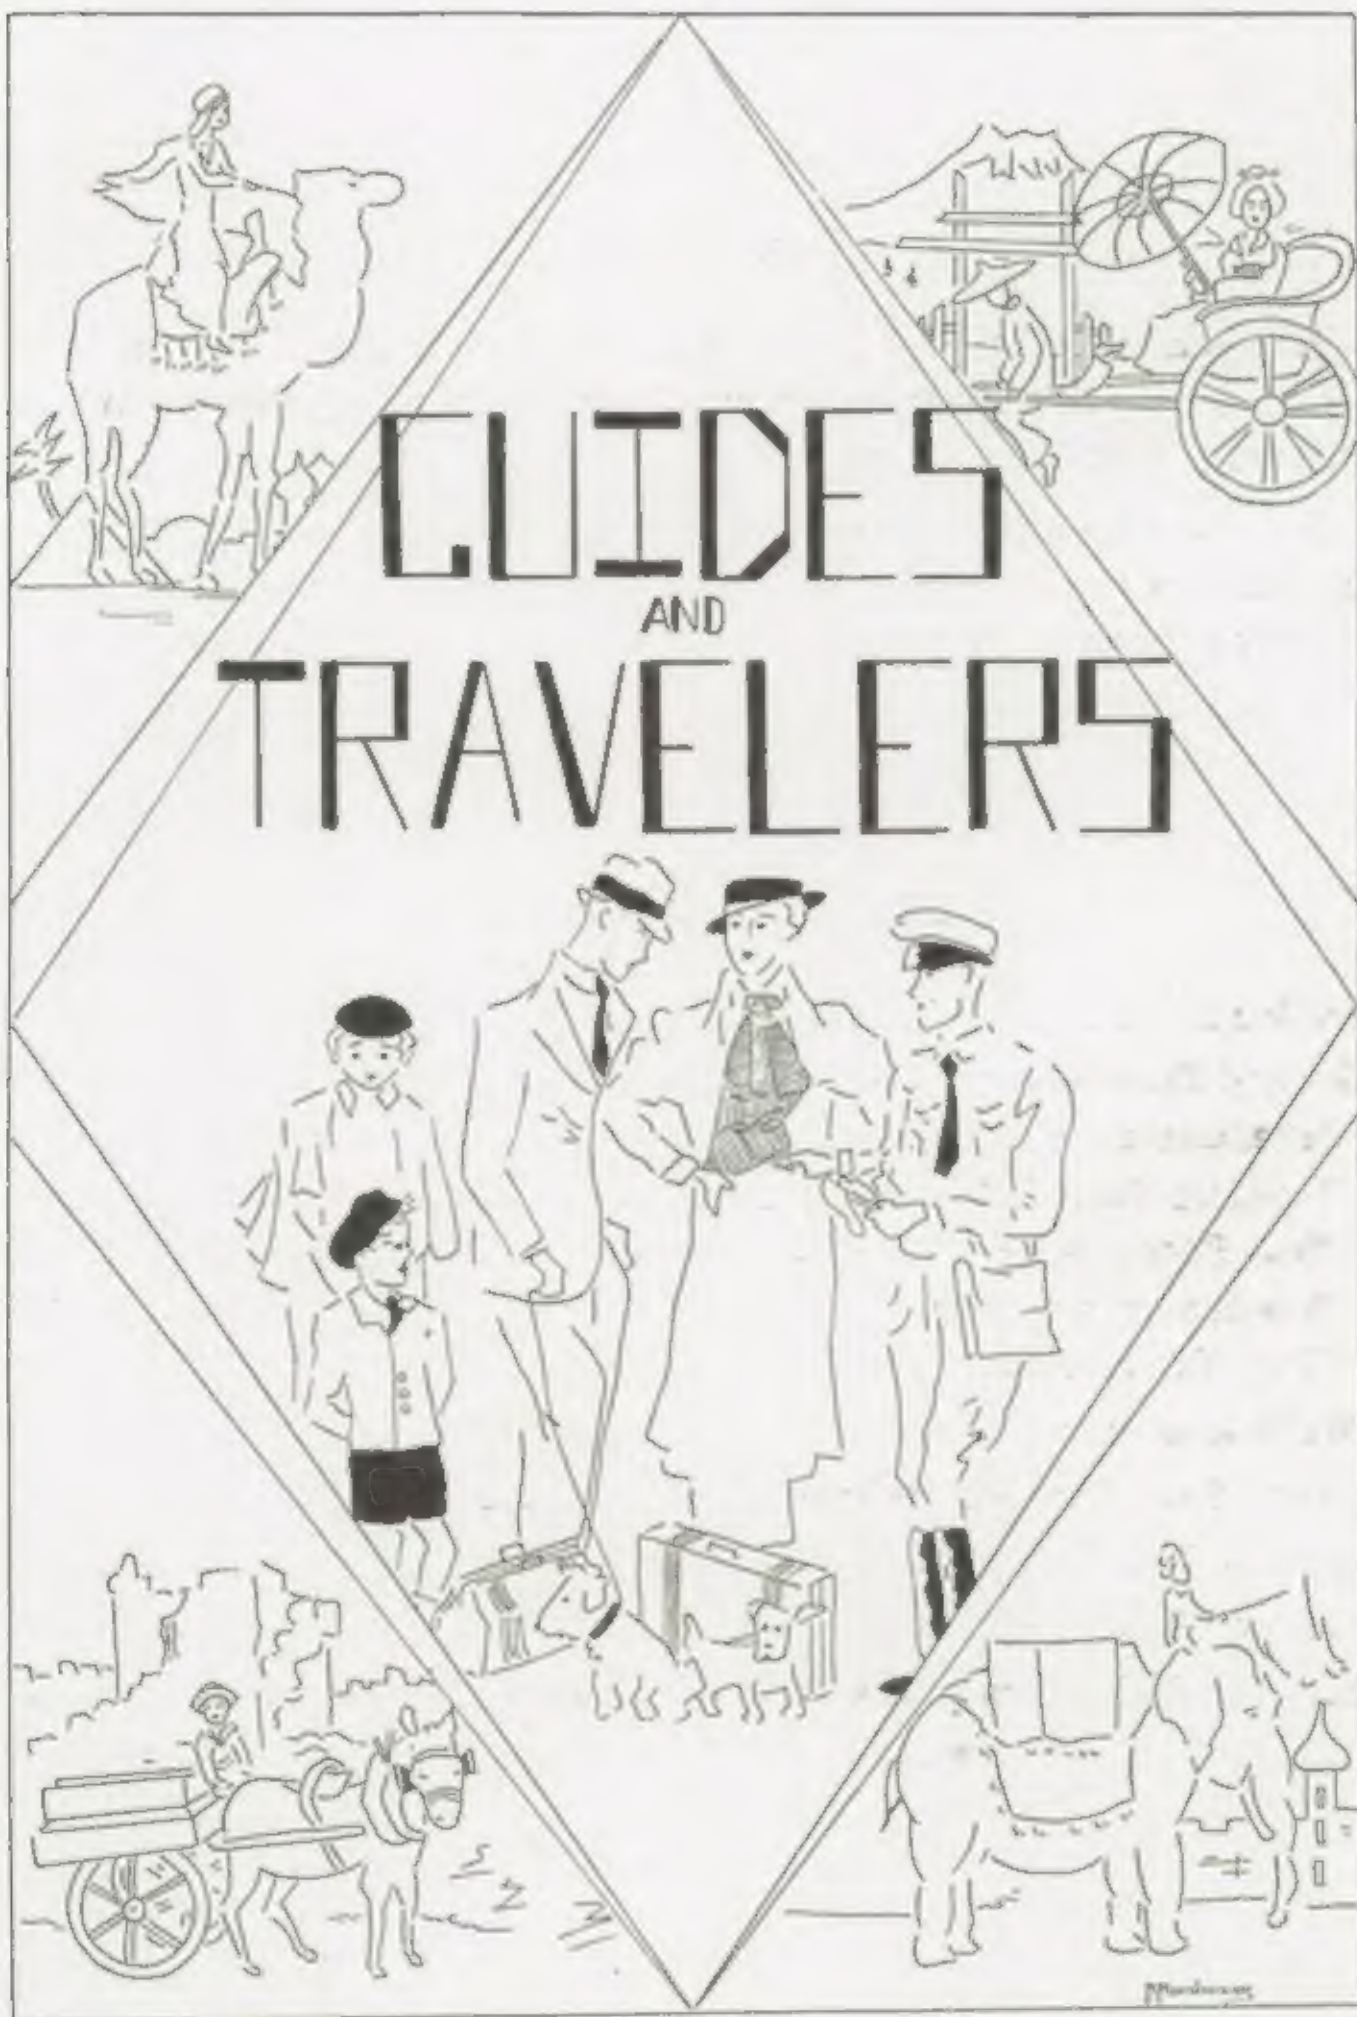

FOREWORD

High school is just a journey. In commemoration of that journey we present to you in this Lambkin a book of modern travel, an allegory of your trip through Fort Collins High School.

The publication of this book has been made possible only by sacrificing everything but the absolute essentials of an annual. We hope you will keep this in mind while reading our book.

THE LAMBKIN

ON WRITING AN ANNUAL

In publishing an annual it is possible to start early in the year, but it is more fun to leave the composition of the book until the last two weeks, and within that time to do all the work. This is not absolutely necessary, but I would advise such practice for amateurs. The main benefit to be gained from this procedure is that it gives the Sponsor, Editor, and Associate Editor so much spare time to receive callers.

If the staff is at a time party, there should be at least twenty callers and two fresh ones a day. These visitors should be treated with extreme politeness. As a good host, the editor should stop all work, bring forth the punch bowl, greet them with his guests, and point out "features" of interest. But if he wishes to be still more charming, he will interpret the pictures and explain the jokes. In case any one of the callers feels Baron Munchausen-ish it would be the height of ill manners to interrupt him. Listen interestedly and suppress all yawns. When you can stand it no longer, make the guest find a very bright, gutted tooth to put in some other time and escort him to the door.

Refreshments are not necessary, but to insure a good crowd throughout the week, a snack should be served at least two different nights. Stale candy and cake inherited from the Ladies' Art Society are recommended.

Toward the end of the work the staff should treat itself to a climb to the tower on top of the building. With this purpose in mind it is wise to cultivate the good graces of a faculty member. If your school does not afford a space, the roof will answer the same purpose. Gentlemen may conduct of their own accord and be observed. See Family Post, Rule 29. It is proper to step on the third finger of the left hand of the person below you when coming down ladders.

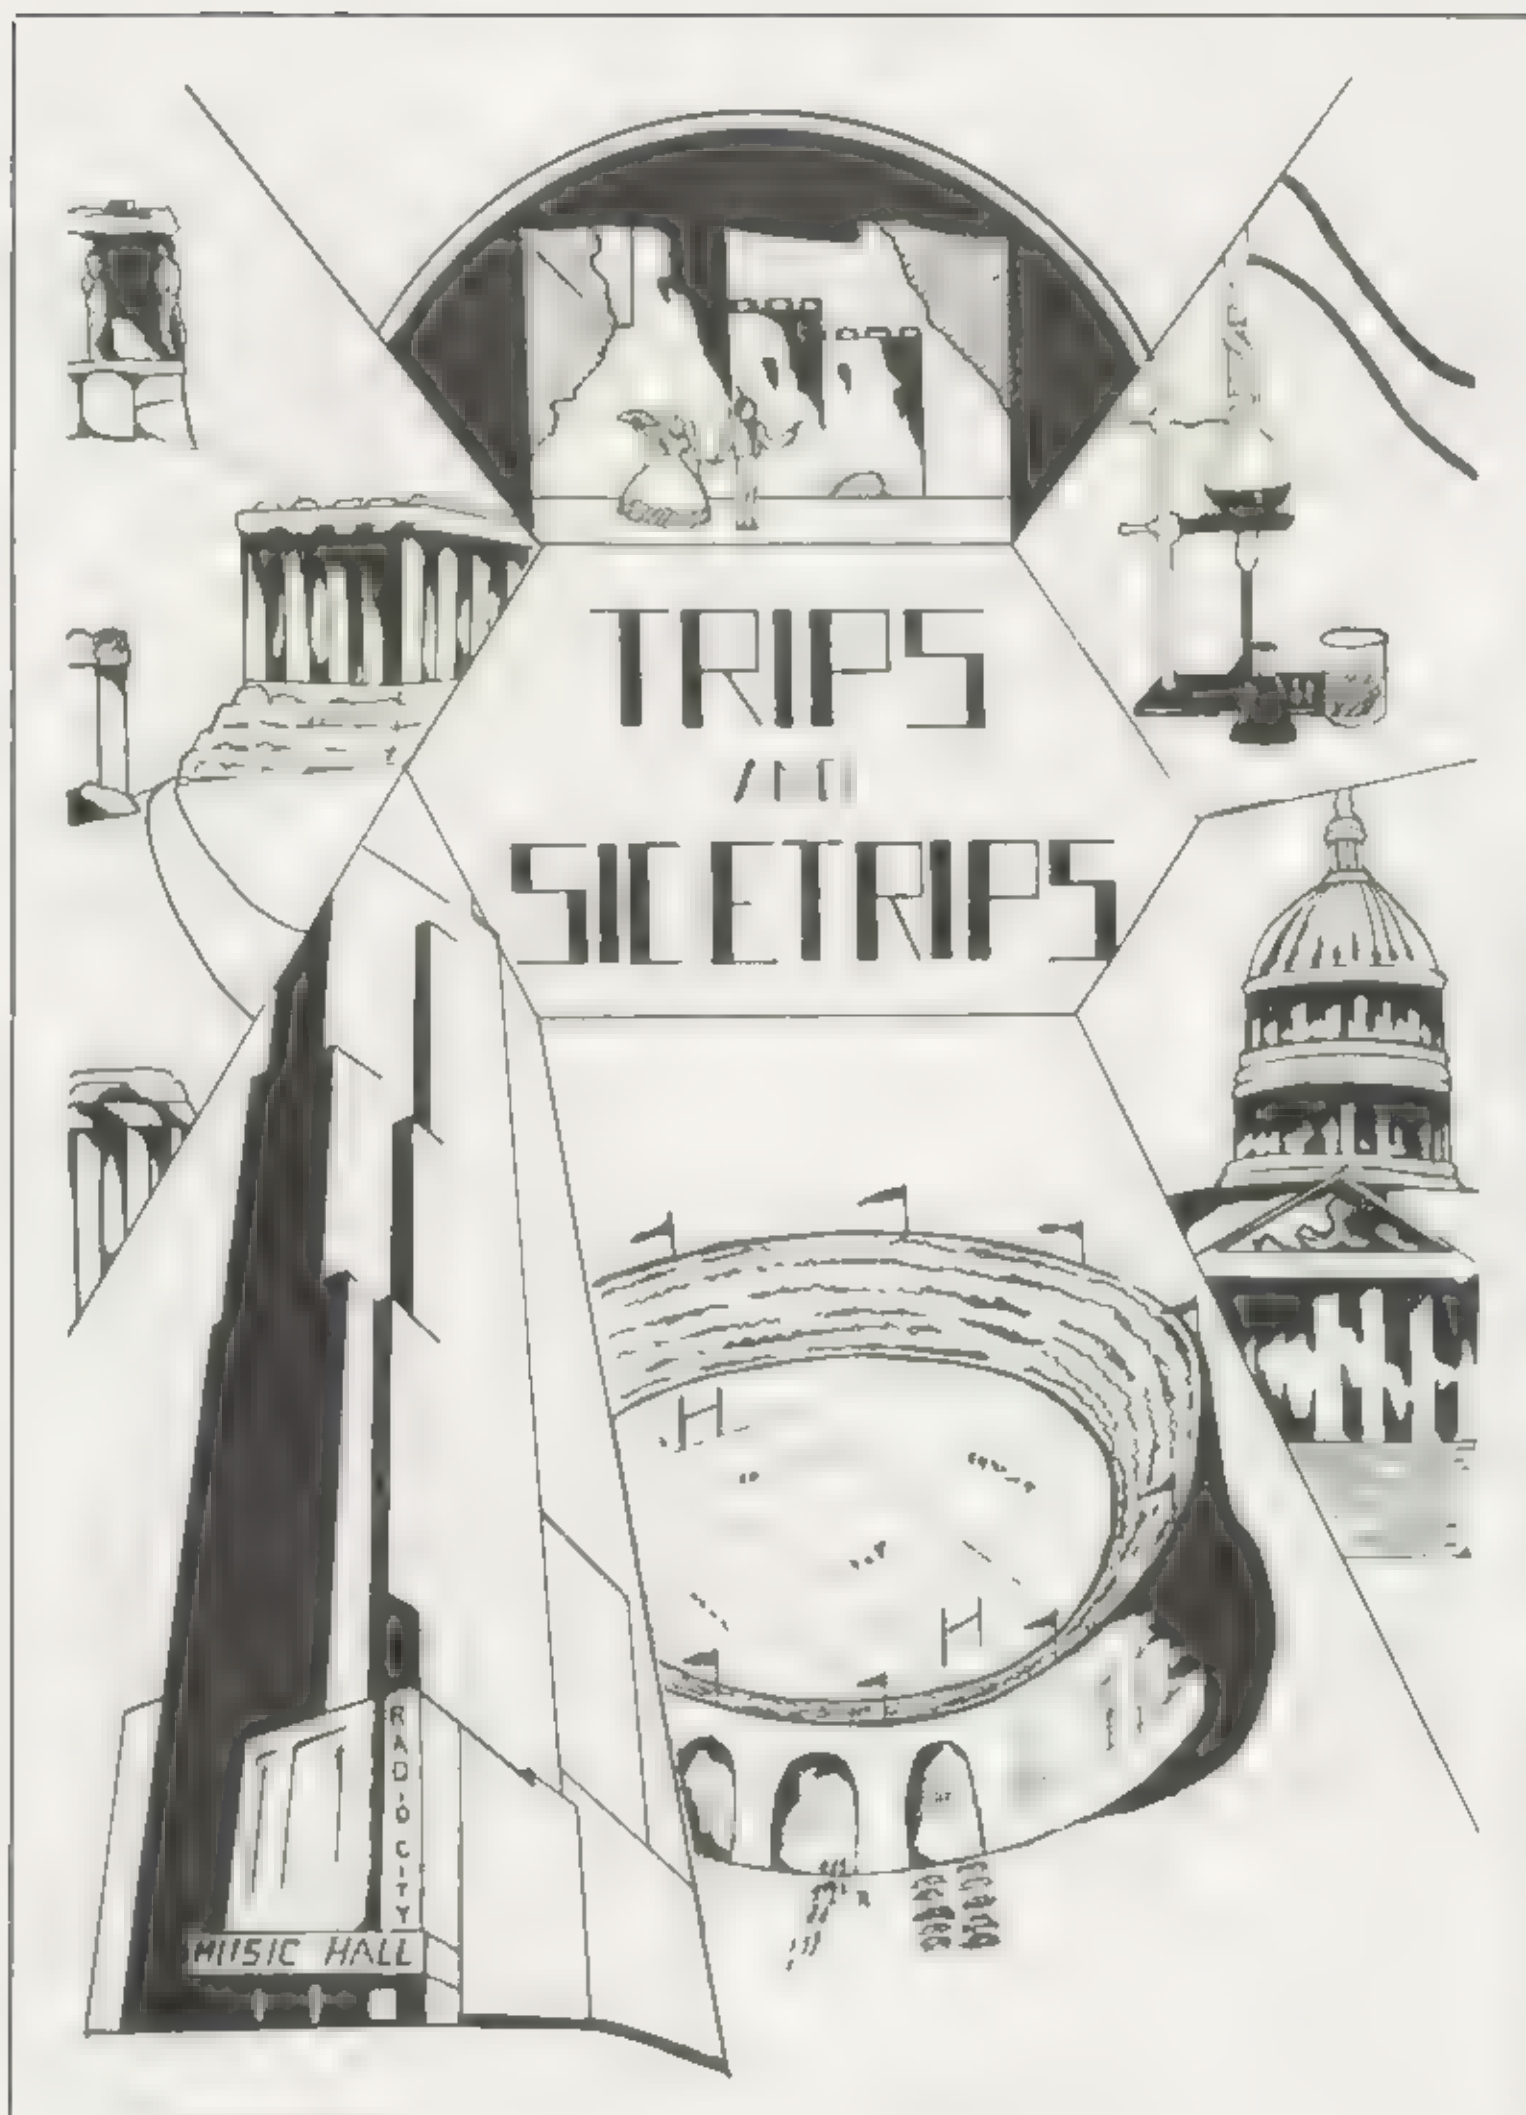

An ideal staff should consist of a very determined editor who is opposed to the views of everyone else, and who has a full vocabulary of clever names for his helpers; a sarcastic yet very "noble" sponsor; three art editors with divided opinions, one, preferably a boy with original ideas of spelling; two assistant editors, a member boy to drop in in an official manner monthly and advise the sponsor, and a senior girl to be general "handy man" and goat for the staff; to say nothing of an over-worked typist.

When mounting individual pictures the staff should mount several views of each person. This does away with the necessity of any last minute switching, of one pose for another by any vacillating senior who follows his friend's advice. Each member of the staff should take one try at chewing rubber cement. Once is generally enough.

Put in only those snapshots which have some definite theme back of them, as leap frog and so on in order not to offend anyone. Any dramatic poses of the two opposite sexes, as a struggling girl in the vice like grip of a boy, would be poor material. Children's pictures should not be accepted, particularly those of early years of infancy.

Quotations about seniors should be published a week before press time to enable the class either to submit their own or to change the staff's choice. This will avoid complications, such as fair maidens' weeping on the editor's shoulder.

And last but by no means least, never forget the dear teachers. Flatter them by putting into the book their clever sayings or stories. If you do all these things, I'll guarantee yours will be the cleverest story book that the school has ever seen. Also you will doubtless have to spend the week after the annual makes its appearance in severe and strict seclusion.

STUDENT COUNCIL

President	-----Jack Clayton
Vice President	-----Margaret Young
Secretary	-----Kirby Dalziel
Treasurer	-----Ward Miller
Sponsor---	Mr. Roy M. Langdon

Every other Tuesday at fifth period this body meets in Mr. Langdon's room, a motley group consisting of freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors. The high and mighty seniors rule the assemblage intellectually as well as numerically.

They hold many weighty discussions and arguments on subjects of school warfare, for on their shoulders rests the burden of the student government of the school.

Their main job this year was to intrench the Social Hour more firmly as a regular part of the school's activities.

When it was thought that existing conditions would make the publication of a Lambkin impossible this year, the Student Council took up the task and put it over. This is characteristic of the fine work of the organization.

Mr. Charles V. Farnham

The chance to watch countless chemical experiments and not have to record them would appeal to innumerable Chemistry students, I am sure. That is just what is done in Benzene Ring. Besides the experiments, moving pictures of the various topics are shown.

Once a year the club puts on a program for assembly. This year it included a short play, a skit on cotton, and some times played on glass funnels.

Along with practically every other organization in the school, Benzene Ring suffers from the spring picnic habit.

To qualify for the club, members must have a B grade or better for the first period.

Some peppy organization, the Boosters Club, with their purple and gold outfits which they wear every Friday!

From a list of twenty candidates nominated by the club itself, ten girls are chosen from each class. The loyal Boosters sell tickets to every game and play. You can be sure to find them at any football or basketball game. They even go to track meets!

At basketball and football games they put on stunts between halves. Girl Cheer leaders also come from this group.

DEBATE AND SHARKS CLUB

President.....	Woodrow Greene
Vice President.....	Florence Rogers
Secretary-treasurer.....	Marguerite Pope
Sponsor.....	Mr. Roy M. Langdon

As the name indicates, this club is composed of "Shark" debaters. The Fort Collins Interscholastic debaters are Florence Rogers, Jeanette Hahn, Elmo Thompson, Woodrow Greene and Lisle Widman. They have participated in nineteen debates with the following teams: Longmont, Gresham, Eaton, Rock Springs, Wyoming, and Greeley. Lisle Widman and Woodrow Greene were present at the State Championship Tournament at Boulder and debated with Littleton, Rocky Ford, Greer, Cathedral, and Fort Morgan. Debates were of both decision and non-decision types.

Shark's Club meets once a month at the various homes of the members. The programs consist of sermons and numerous debates, and takes outside speakers on debate. The club consists of about twenty members.

In the State Championship Debate Tournament held in March at the University of Colorado, the Fort Collins debate team took part. Woodrow Greene reached the finals of the Extemporaneous Speaking contest, but was defeated in that by the representative from State Preparatory School at Boulder.

DRAMATIC CLUB

President.....	Doris Sarchet
Vice President.....	Lawrence McMillan
Secretary.....	Frank Weinle
Treasurer.....	Miss Mabel Johnson
Sponsor.....

The only time the Dramatic Club comes prominently to light is at the Vaudeville which it puts on annually in the spring. But it is the Dramatic club which puts over all our plays and the operetta. Its members are the poor fellows who have the job of selling tickets, being on the stage crew, and generally doing the "dirty work" behind scenes.

They hold initiations three times a year and are those initiations tough! In order to be paddled on one of these affairs in the hills, one must have a lead in either the Major or Junior play or in the Operetta.

SENIOR HI-Y

President.....	Bob McCutcheon
Vice President.....	Emmett Ryder
Second Vice President.....	Jack Beardsley
Secretary.....	Dick Hall
Treasurer.....	Keith Wilson
Sponsor.....	Mr. T. R. Blevins

Hi Y is one of the oldest organizations of the school. It is a club which exists for the purpose of fostering high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community. However, members are not so dignified as they sound. They throw a Best Girls' banquet and a Spring Picnic that vies with the best of them.

The club has regular meetings with interesting speakers and good entertainment.

It cooperates with the Round Table to distribute baskets of food at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB MEMBERS

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

President.....Jack Clayton
Vice President.....Margaret Young
Secretary.....Dick Hall
Sponsors.....Miss Alice R. Wolfe, Mr. Roy M. Langdon

The International Club broadens the sympathy and understanding of the members for nations other than their own. It carries on a study of international relations. Various speakers on subjects of international importance appear before the club from time to time.

Representatives were chosen from the club, to the conference of the Northern Colorado International Clubs held this year at Greeley. Different types of governments were discussed there, namely: Democracy, Fascism, Hitlerism, and Communism. Fort Collins rated two of the main speeches of the plenary session of the Conference.

The organization meets once a month at the high school.

KNIGHTS AND PAGES

President--- Virginia Wise
 Sponsor-- Miss Lillian B. Catren

Knights and Pages organization is composed of Senior girls who take an active part in Round Table. It is a function of the Round Table and is sponsored by Miss Catren.

The "Big Sisters" meet in the spring and are assigned their "Little Sister" for the following year. In the fall it is the duty of the elder girls to explain the school, help the new girls arrange their schedules, and acquaint them with their teachers. They also try to interest the new girls in Round Table.

In short they try to be real sisters, to set up high ideals of scholarship and conduct of tenor in work and play, and generally to promote a spirit of good fellowship in the school.

The Little Sister Teas, in October, are always as greatly enjoyed by the hostesses as by the guests.

Caesar's Rome lives again in the activities of the Latin Club which is organized for the purpose of studying Roman customs, thru their plays, songs, and stories. Its membership is limited to those students who are studying third and fourth year Latin.

The members enjoy a very American fall picnic and hold monthly meetings thru the winter in the homes of the members. But the climax of the year comes in the spring when the Roman Banquet is held at the Country Club. The entire dinner is always carried out in Latin style, although these neo Romans do sit up rather than trust the ear as their ancient predecessors did.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

President	Jenny Wren Parkerson
Vice President	Margaret Young
Treasurer	Florence Rogers
Sponsor	Miss Barbara Bellows

Members of the National Honor Society are chosen on the four-fold basis of character, scholarship, leadership and service, the ideals of the organization.

It is the aim of the club to make a permanent index and catalog of colleges giving their location, expenses, and courses offered. This index will be filed in the Vocational Guidance Room for the information of all students.

The annual picnic occurs in the Spring. Regular meetings are held at the various homes. These are usually in the form of covered dish suppers.

The staffs of both Spilled Ink and Lambkin make up the Press Club. In the depression years when there is no Lambkin the Spilled Ink holds forth alone.

A Fall picnic where the new-comers are initiated starts the year. Monthly meetings are held at the school where programs of general journalistic interest are given.

Early in January this year some of the members attended the annual press conference at Boulder, which was resumed this winter after a year's suspension because of financial conditions.

Early in May the Press Club closes the year's activities with its annual party at the Community Center, a gala affair where guests are invited.

PLEDGE

"I give my word of honor that I will do my best to:
Live purely, think truly,
Right wrong, and honor God."

Round Table is an organization for all High School girls. Its purpose is to promote high ideals, standards of character and scholarship among all High School girls.

The theme carried out this year is the "Book House." Two meetings are held each month, one a general assembly, and the other separate chapter meetings. Interesting programs have been carried out both in the chapters and general meetings.

The fall and spring picnics, the Christmas Costume party, and Mother's Day program are some of the outstanding social activities of Round Table. The Social Service committee sends out baskets and clothing at Christmas and Thanksgiving.

Sometime in March a Spanish program in Assembly showed what the Spanish club can do. Costumes, dancing, and guitar transported an interested audience to old Spain in one of the most interesting programs of the year.

In their study of Spain the members speak Spanish and give reports on Spanish customs, life, and books. Suppers in Spanish eateries with really Spanish food and a Christmas party as it would be in the land of torreadors add to the interest.

What could be a more well rounded organization than one that not only teaches a good vocation, but entertains while it teaches? The F. F. A. promotes agriculture in High Schools, creates more interest in farming, develops the boy in scholarship, leadership, and thrift, besides providing recreational and educational entertainment for him.

The club is doing good work in the school, for it provides a real vocation which will be of some use to its members after they are out of school.

Among the various entertainments provided for during the year are, a fall winter try initiation, Dad's night, skating party and F. F. A.'s night. In April they plan to hold open house for eighth graders, and to hold a joint meeting with Loveland in May.

Wings, wheels, point bolts, and wires, all of these go to make up airplanes; and who knows, we may be going to school with some future pilot? The Aviation Club teaches the principles of theory of aviation, creates an interest in aviation in general, and gives practice in making models of planes to illustrate flying.

Their meetings are composed of talks by members pertaining to planes and flying. Aviators have spoken to them on their experiences.

In the spring the club plans to have a model airplane meet where prizes will be given for the best model planes in the different groups. Rules of the National Aeronautical Association will be followed.

Secretary	--George Michaud
Sponsor	Mr. John S. Congdon

The Radio club, a new organization consisting of twelve members, is divided into two groups: Those who have no knowledge of Radio and wish to learn, and those who already have their own stations. It is the purpose of the club to teach the first group the essentials of radio and transmission and to give the latter group practice in transmission.

The club plans to hold some of its meetings at the various homes of the members where there are real sets hooked up. It also plans to set up a short wave set here in the school.

THE POOR NUT

What a situation! To earn your way thru college by working in a book store, to have a very active inter-city complex, but still to be the athletic hero of Ohio State College! This is what happened to John Miller at the Major play entitled "The Poor Nut". An excellent cast supporting the production included Jack Clayton as John Miller, the "Poor Nut" in question, George Lee Seyster, Margery Blake; Harry Ross, Colonel Small, the book store owner, Natalie Beckard, John Winters, David Sudduth, "Spike" Hoyt, Bob Jackson, Jack Beardsley "Wavy" Pierce; "Kermit" Wilson, Prof. Deming, Harold Bowen, "Doc" Spornay, Dick Hall, a Freshman, others included George Kanavee, Evelyn Loeble, Margaret Young and Kirby Daziel.

THE CHRISTMAS PLAY

The lovely and familiar story of "Why the Chimes Rang" was the annual Christmas gift of the high school to the community this year.

The art department added a new form of Christmas decoration to the school by decorating the windows on the first landing with mural paintings of the Christmas theme. Proper lighting effects made the display especially attractive at night.

DOUBLE A FOLLIES

The "Follies" were cleverly presented in the newspaper office of J. W. Parkerson, Editor Parkerson of the "Tattler" fell asleep and dreamed the columns of his paper came to life in his office. Some of the articles which he saw were: mae quartette; agricultural laws; Farmer choras; foot ball chorus; classified ads; sport news; and pirates. Two aviators made a forced landing in a desert and were visited by Indians, cowboys and a Hilberty Bard. The "Follies" ended with a chorus by the entire ensemble. It was directed by Miss Lorna Mulder.

JOAN OF THE NANCY LEE

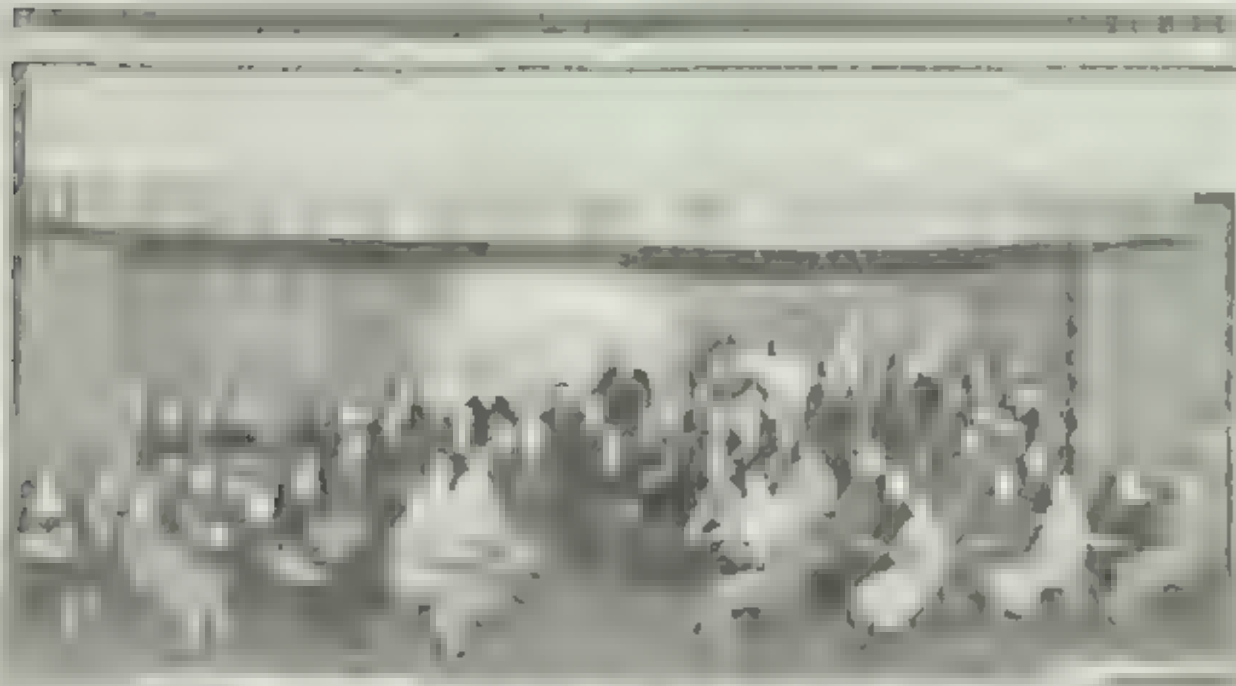

Pirates, bridesmaids, decks, and moonlight. What could be more colorful for an operetta? The opera concerned itself with the way in which Lady Joanne prevents a mutiny of the crew, and makes herself captain of the ship, deposing her former lover. In the process of the plot, Joanne and Richard become reconciled, and the pirates yield to the charms of the maidens aboard ship. Patty Marshall as Lady Joanna Leyton and Forrest Hall as Sir Richard Camden were the leads, George Kanavel as Lord Egbert Mortimer, Jack Seeger as Jerry, Frank Weira as Ned Brinkley, Leland Brack as Barnaby Hyde, Keith Wilson as Stephen Lowe, Warren Wisdom as Bill Bloody, Bob Barnes as Monsieur Francis, Clement Hugel as Signor Dorena, Fred Schareman as Jim Sparks, Lafayette Miller as Sam Laverrot, Alan Taylor as Niek Lewis, Keith Miller as Jonathan Lambey, Harry Ross as Giles Rose, Essie Aenziger as Charissa Buckingham, Essie McDougall as Dornida Harcourt, Jean Irwin as Florinda Harcourt, Frances Line Hancock as Mistress Rhoda, Gail Hildebrandt as Dena Pastaca de la Montana, Jean Ulford as Dornus de la Montana, Anne Tobiska as Henrietta, Evelyn Eberle as Dorothea Aton, Lola Greenacre as Phyllis Page, Adele Macquonne as Kitty Bellamy, Virginia Wise as Louisa Lowndes, and Jeanette Robinson as Rosamond West. It was produced under the direction of Miss Kathryn Bauder and Miss Mabel Johnson.

In the last three years the Fort Collins High School band has increased from twenty-five to sixty-five.

It has taken an active interest in all High School activities during the past year. It has been at all the athletic contests and has done much toward helping the team win. The band has gained the reputation of being the finest concert band in Northern Colorado. It has also been of great service to the city in helping in all municipal parades.

The big event for the band is the annual music contest held in Denver every May. The band is working exceptionally hard on their contest numbers Finlandia and Semirade. They expect to bring home a share of the awards.

The band is under the direction of Mr. Bueche. To him is due the credit for the exceptional progress recently made by this organization.

Members of the band are: Mr. Bueche, Irwin, Strauch, Neiswanger, Munsell, Darnell, Young, Hall, C. Johnson, Culbertson, Goodwin, Colson, McIntyre, W. Krug, E. VOCAL MUSIC

Mixed chorus, Girls' Glee Club, and Boys' Glee club are not extra-curricular activities but are regular classes which meet twice a week.

This year, for the first time, there will not be a state contest, but a local music festival. Each school is allotted a certain amount of time to give a number, then later they are all combined to give a concert.

The Mixed Chorus, Boys' Chorus, and Boys' Quartette will represent Fort Collins High School at the Festival.

Forrest Hall, tenor; Clement Hiigel, second tenor; Keith Wilson, baritone; and George Kanavel, bass; compose the Boys' Quartette.

Mixed Chorus and the Boys' and Girls' Glee clubs assisted the dramatic department in producing the Operetta. Mixed Chorus sang for the Christmas program. They also have sang for the Commercial club and the Woman's club.

The 1933 football season was opened with the usual Lambkin Football Camp in North Park under the guidance of our coach, Mr. T. R. Blevins. Because of the graduation the preceding spring of many veterans, the team was composed of practically all new material. Both practice games with Ant and Last Denver were Lambkin victories with scores standing 6-0 and 13-0 respectively.

During the regular season we defeated Boulder, Longmont, and Eaton. However, our valiant foe, Loveland, defeated us in the crucial game for conference leadership.

The last game of the season in December was an easy victory from Windsor, 26-0, giving us third place in the Northern Conference.

As is always the custom, the season closed with the annual football banquet given in honor of the team.

The basketball season opened this year with a small team composed of practically all new material. Laboring under the handicaps of inexperience and a long schedule, the boys managed to win some very creditable victories during the season. High spots were the thrilling one point victory over Boulder in the last thirty seconds of play and a decisive victory 33-15 over Greeley, runner-up for the state title. This game closed the season.

Excepting Longmont and Eaton, the Fort Collins boys won from every team in the conference, which placed them fourth in the final league standing. Altho the season was not so successful from the point of view of a conference championship, the team showed the usual good sportsmanship, whether it won or lost.

The annual basketball banquet was held at the high school in March.

During the spring of 1933 Fort Collins High School dominated the state in track as it has for the last eighteen years. We got off to a good start by winning the Fourth Annual Indoor Track meet by a score of 157 and 9-10 points. In this meet, in which 398 contestants took part, eight new records were established, five of them being set by Fort Collins athletes. Having taken the Greeley Relays with a total of 20 points, we placed first in the Colorado Relays with a $22\frac{1}{2}$ point total.

In May we annexed two more victories by winning both the heavy and light weight divisions of the Northern on Colorado Field, followed by a victory in the Northern at Loveland with 95 $\frac{1}{4}$ points. The season was completed in glorious style by surpassing all competition in Colorado to win our eighteenth consecutive state track title in the meet at Boulder.

Fifteen boys went to Chicago in June for the National Track and Field Meet at Soldier Field. By winning 32 1-11 points the boys placed third.

And the last was one of your own.

Bob Johnson: "Is that girl wearing an awfully short skirt, or am I seeing things?"

Jack C.: "Both."

Hugh: "You're the breath of my life."

Evelyn: "Well, suppose you hold your breath for a while."

An old maid was approached by a welfare worker. "Will you subscribe for the Homeless Men's fund?" asked the solicitor.

"No," snapped the old maid. "But I might consider taking one of the men."

"Don't hang around here wasting time now you've finished sweeping the shop," said the head of the store to the new boy. "You can be catching flies and shoving them into the new patent fly-trap, so that it will be ready to put in the window."

'Tis hard to part with those we love,
When our hearts are full of hope;
But 'tis harder still to find a towel
When our eyes are full of soap.

"Say, Lawrence," asked Don Crenshaw as he walked into the Woman's Shoe Section with the morning paper in his hand, "Can a cowhide in a shoe shop?"

Lawrence, who isn't slow, replied, "No, but calfskin."

Frances Wixon says she carries her money in her stocking because her father told her to put it where it would draw interest.

Dick H.: "I say, old fellow, why on earth are you washing your spoon in your finger bowl?"

Henry B.: "Do you think I want to get egg all over my pocket?"

"I'm always springing something," said the mouse as he stumbled over the cheese-laden trap.

First Him: "That's my girl. What do you think of her?"

Second Him: "I can't say."

First Him: "Why?"

Second Him: "She's your girl."

Fred Bollin: "Did you ever take chloroform?"

Blake: "No, who teaches it?"

Latin is a language.

At least, it used to be;

First it killed the Romans,

And now it's killing me.

Some girls show distinction—or should one say distinctly?—in their clothes.
